

Hamilton County

Median Household Income

$29,498

$40,964 +

Median Home Value

$71,500

$111,400 +

Poverty Rate

13.3%

11.8% -

High school education or more

75.6%

82.7% +

People driving to work alone

307,861

314,252 +

Dearborn County

Median Household Income

$31,398

$48,899 +

Median Home Value

$59,800

$120,600 +

Poverty Rate

8.5%

6.6% -

High school education or more

73.5%

82% +

People driving to work alone

13,841

18,857 +

Boom times in the Tristate

The decade of the 1990s was a boom time for much of the country, and the latest Census data shows the Cincinnati area benefited with higher incomes, lower poverty rates and higher home values. Residents are better educated, but they're seeing more and more of their neighbors on the road to work every day.

Butler County

Median Household Income

$32,440

$47,885 +

Median Home Value

$72,500

$123,200 +

Poverty Rate

10.6%

8.7% -

High school education or more

76%

83.3% +

People driving to work alone

110,827

134,970 +

1990

2000

Numbers represent figures gathered from the 1990 and 2000 censuses.

+ Increased

- Decreased

Warren County

Median Household Income

$36,728

$57,952 +

Median Home Value

$77,300

$142,200 +

Poverty Rate

6.4%

4.2% -

High school education or more

75.5%

86.2% +

People driving to work alone

46,673

65,807 +

