

Workplace shooting at Watkins

Five people were shot when a man believed to be a former Watkins Motor Lines employee drove past a security guard and opened fire in an office at the West Chester location Tuesday. Two died and three others were seriously injured.

*Not to scale

